

Lego Therapy

This is a small group which usually runs Thursday and Friday lunchtime. A team of three children work as a team to follow instructions, supply pieces and build a variety of items. The focus of the group is to develop communication and respect. It allows children to think about how to use positional language and listen carefully to instructions.