INTRODUCTION

The Blessed Cyprian Tansi Catholic Academy Trust recognises that a member of staff may be the first to realise if something is wrong within the academy. However they may not want to express their concerns because they feel that speaking up would somehow be disloyal to their colleagues or to the academy.

It is important for staff to know that The Blessed Cyprian Tansi Catholic Academy Trust is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, probity and accountability. Part of meeting that commitment is to encourage employees and others with concerns about any aspect of the trust's work to feel able to come forward and voice those concerns. The trust recognises the need for confidentiality and the fact that the majority of cases will have to proceed on a confidential basis.

SCOPE OF THIS POLICY

1. Aims of the Policy

The policy is designed to ensure that staff can raise their concerns about wrongdoing or malpractice within any part of the trust without fear of victimisation, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. It is also intended to encourage and enable them to raise serious concerns rather than ignoring a problem or 'blowing the whistle' outside.

This policy aims to:

- encourage staff to feel confident in raising serious concerns at the earliest opportunity and to question and act upon concerns about practice;
- provide avenues for them to raise those concerns and receive feedback on any action taken;
- ensure that they receive a response to their concerns and that they are aware of how to pursue them if they are not satisfied;
- reassure them that they will be protected from possible reprisals or victimisation if they have made any disclosure in good faith.

2. Range of the Policy

The policy is intended to enable those who have concerns regarding wrongdoing or malpractice to report those concerns at the earliest possible opportunity so that they can be properly investigated. The policy is not, however, intended to replace existing procedures, for example:

- if the concern relates to someone's own treatment as a member of staff, they should raise this under the existing grievance or harassment procedure, as appropriate;
- if a parent or other user of an academy has a concern about services provided, they should raise this as a complaint to the academy;
- some areas of service have their own specific procedures, e.g. Child Protection procedures.

Where concerns are raised, the subsequent investigation may take the form of any appropriate procedure, either internal or external, e.g. a finance audit enquiry or a Police investigation.

The person who has raised the concerns will ordinarily be kept informed of progress and of the outcome of any investigation.

3. Who can raise a concern under this Policy?

The provisions of the policy apply to all:

- Employees of The Blessed Cyprian Tansi Catholic Academy Trust
- Members of the Board of Directors
- Members of a local governing body
- Employees of contractors working for the academy, e.g. agency staff
- Employees of suppliers
- Voluntary workers

4. What should be reported?

Staff should report any concerns that they have about service provision or about the conduct of Employees, Directors or Governors or others acting on behalf of the trust that:

- make them feel uncomfortable in terms of known standards, or
- are not in keeping with the academy's regulations and policies, or
- fall below established standards of practice, or
- are improper behaviour

These concerns might relate to:

- conduct which is an offence or a breach of the law
- disclosures related to miscarriages of justice
- racial, sexual, disability or other discrimination
- health and safety of the public and/or other employees
- damage to the environment
- unauthorised use of public
- possible fraud and corruption
- neglect or abuse of clients, or
- other unethical conduct

SAFEGUARDS

5. The Legal Framework

The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 provides legal protection, in certain circumstances, to workers making disclosures in good faith about malpractice.

The Act makes it unlawful for an employer to dismiss anyone or allow them to be victimised on the basis that they have made an appropriate lawful disclosure in accordance with the Act.

6. Harassment or Victimisation

The trust is committed to good practice and high standards and to being supportive of its staff.

The trust recognises that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make. If a member of staff honestly and reasonably believes what they are saying is true, they should have nothing to fear because they will be doing their duty to the academy, the trust, their colleagues and those for whom they are providing a service.

The trust will not tolerate any harassment or victimisation (including any informal pressures) and will take the appropriate action to protect staff when they raise a concern in good faith.

7. Support for the Person Raising Concerns

Throughout the process the member of staff:

- will be given full support from the management and governors of the academy
- will be assumed that their concerns are taken seriously
- the academy will do all it can to help them throughout the investigation e.g. provide access to advocacy services where the individual has no access to Trade Union Support

If, following discussions with the member of staff, the Head Teacher and Governors consider redeployment on a temporary basis is appropriate, the academy will seek to arrange for this to take place via liaison with other academies within The Blessed Cyprian Tansi Catholic Academy Trust.

8. Confidentiality

All concerns will be treated in confidence and any records relating to the case should be handled in accordance with the Data Protection Act. Every effort will be made not to reveal the identity of the member of staff who raises concerns, should that be their wish.

If the concerns raised are investigated as part of the disciplinary/grievance/ harassment procedures, it may be that it is not possible to take the appropriate action on the disclosure without the help of the person raising the concerns. As a result, they may be asked to come forward to act as a witness. If they agree to this, they will be offered the appropriate advice and support.

9. Anonymous Allegations

This policy encourages staff to put their name to their allegation whenever possible. Concerns expressed anonymously are much less powerful but they may be considered at the discretion of the academy. In exercising this discretion the factors to be taken into account would include:

- the seriousness of the issue raised
- the credibility of the concern; and
- the likelihood of confirming the allegation from other sources.

10. Untrue Allegations

Some concerns raised may, when investigated, prove to be groundless. If a concern is raised or an allegation made in good faith by someone reasonably believing it to be true and their concerns are not confirmed by investigation, they should have nothing to fear as the academy will recognise their genuine motives. However, a deliberately false or malicious accusation is a disciplinary offence and will be dealt with under the disciplinary procedure, as well as potentially exposing the accuser to legal liability

RAISING A CONCERN

11. Who should a concern be raised with?

As a first step, staff should normally raise concerns with their line manager or with the Head Teacher. This might depend, however, on the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues involved and who is suspected of the wrongdoing.

If this is not appropriate, for example, if they are the person or persons about whom the concerns relate, staff should raise their concerns with the Chair of the local governing body.

If they are not confident that either of these will deal with their concerns properly, then they may raise the issue with the Company Secretary who may bring it to the attention of the academy and ask them to investigate or indeed investigate on the academy's behalf. The Company Secretary, Helen Chadwick, can be contacted by email, helen@edenvirtualassistant.co.uk by telephone on 07827 785836.

If an individual is unsure whether or how to raise a concern or wants confidential advice, they may wish to consult their Trade Union. Alternatively, they can contact the independent charity Public Concern at Work on 020 7404 6609 or at helpline@pcaw.co.uk Their lawyers can give individuals free confidential advice on how to raise a concern about serious malpractice at work.

12. How to raise concern(s)

Staff may raise their concern by telephone, in person or in writing. In the interests of confidentiality, staff may raise concerns via their Trade Union. The earlier they express their concern, the easier it is to take action. They will need to provide the following information:

- the background and history of the concern (giving relevant dates);
- the reason why they are particularly concerned about the situation.

Although they are not expected to prove beyond doubt the truth of their suspicion, they will need to demonstrate to the person contacted that there are reasonable grounds for their concern.

Staff may wish to consider discussing their concern with a colleague first and they may find it easier to raise the matter if there are two or more of them who have had the same experience or concerns.

They may invite their Trade Union, professional association representative or a friend to be present during any meeting or interviews in connection with the concerns they have raised.

HOW THE ACADEMY WILL RESPOND

13. The academy will take their concerns seriously and will respond to them.

In order to be fair to all employees, including those who may have been wrongly or mistakenly accused, initial enquiries will be made to decide whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so what form that investigation should take.

Where concerns or allegations fall within the scope of specific academy procedures, then they would normally be referred for consideration under those procedures.

As a result of this, where appropriate, the concerns raised may:

- be investigated by management, the responsible officer or through the discipline/grievance/harassment process;
- be referred to the external auditors;
- be referred and dealt with under the established child protection procedures
- form the subject of an independent inquiry.

Within ten working days of your concern being raised the Company Secretary, Head Teacher or Chair of Governors if internally raised with him/her) will write to the person raising the concern:

- acknowledging that their concern has been received;
- indicating how the academy/trust propose to deal with the issue;
- telling them whether any further investigations will take place (and if not, explaining why this is the case);
- supplying them with information on staff support mechanisms.

The amount of contact between the person raising the concern and those considering the issues will depend on the nature of the matters raised, the potential difficulties involved and the clarity of the information provided. It is likely that the person raising concern will be interviewed to ensure that their disclosure is fully understood. A written record of this meeting will be produced and a copy given to the whistleblower. It will include any further actions to be taken, if appropriate.

A meeting can be arranged away from the workplace, if they wish, and a union or professional association representative or a friend may accompany them in support.

The academy will do what it can to minimise any difficulties that staff may experience as a result of raising a concern. For instance, if they are asked to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the academy will arrange for them to receive appropriate advice and support.

They need to be assured that their disclosure has been properly addressed. Unless there are any legal reasons why this cannot be done, they will be kept informed of the progress and outcome of any investigation.

14. RESPONSIBILITY

The Head Teacher has overall responsibility for the maintenance and operation of this policy.

He/she will maintain a record of concerns raised and the outcomes. Records will be kept in such a way so as not to endanger the confidentiality concerning the identity of the person raising concerns.

The Head Teacher will report to the governing body and/or trust as necessary.

15. HOW THE MATTER CAN BE TAKEN FURTHER

The aim of the policy is to provide staff with an appropriate way to raise their concerns. Hopefully, they will be satisfied with any action taken as a result of their raising issues. In most cases it should not be necessary to alert anyone externally. The aim of the policy is to provide an internal mechanism for any wrong doing in the trust. However, should this not be the case and they feel it necessary to take the matter outside the trust, our prescribed contacts are:

- the Director of the Diocese
- the External Auditor
- the relevant Trade Union
- the Police

This does not prevent staff from seeking their own legal advice.

If the member of staff raises their concerns outside the trust, they should ensure that it is to one of the above prescribed contacts. A public disclosure to anyone else could take them outside the protection of the Public Interest Disclosure Act and of this policy.

They should not disclose information that is confidential to the trust or to anyone else, such as a client or contractor, except to those included in the list of prescribed contacts.

16. REVIEW OF POLICY

Before its publication, the contents of this policy were subject to consultation with the relevant Trade Unions and the trust will continue to review the policy every 12 months.

In the meantime, should any member of staff wish to suggest any addition/revision to the policy, they should speak to the Head Teacher, who will consider their suggestions and if necessary put them forward at the time of the overall review.
